

Please leave the current rules on media monopolization in place. The industry needs more diffesity rather then less. If the rules are changed it will lead to a homogenous bland centralized leadership. The minority will get less of a voice and lead to not being heard at all.